This winter, there will be a mixture of in-person and virtual programming. Please read the descriptions carefully.
All virtual (v) adult programs will be presented via ZOOM. Program links will be sent by email to those who have registered.
No refunds on programs with fees.

All in-person programming is subject to change to virtual if necessary.

Age requirement is 16+ years.

January

The Sicilian Syndicate: The Mafia in Detroit (v)

Thursday, January 15 @ 6:30pm

Learn about what we think we know, what we actually know, and what we don't know about the mafia and its influence on gambling and narcotics in mid-20th century Detroit.

Saving the Past: The Women in Historic Preservation (v)

Thursday, January 22 @ 6:30pm

Over 150 years, Michigan women have quietly preserved history in libraries, museums, private clubs, public community centers and historic buildings. Learn about their works, triumphs, and defeats.

February

Capturing the Soul of Community in Photos: Bay View, MI (v)

Thursday, February 5 @ 6:30pm

Bay View, founded in 1875 along Little Traverse Bay, is a National Historic Landmark featuring 31 public buildings and 450 cottages—one of the nation's best-preserved examples of 1900-era High Victorian architecture.

Michigan in the Revolutionary War (v)

Monday, February 9 @ 6:30pm

As America celebrates its 250th anniversary, explore Michigan's often-overlooked role in the Revolution—though far from major battles, it was vital to the fight for North America.

Motor City Famous (v)

Thursday, February 19 @ 6:30pm

Compiling over 100 names and places, author Steve Platto leads a celebrity tour of the Motor City that readers can take with them on their own travels or explore from the comfort of home.

March

Powering Pioneers: Detroit's Female Auto Engineers (v)

Tuesday, March 3 @ 6:30pm

Discover the fascinating careers of three female pioneers in Detroit's automotive industry.

Stagecoaches to Muscle Cars: 200 Years of Cruising Woodward Avenue (v)

Tuesday, March 10 @ 6:30pm

What is it about Woodward that inspires speed and style? Caitlin Donnelly from the Birmingham Museum explores its racing spirit and lasting cultural impact.

Michigan's Venice: The Transformation of the St. Clair Maritime Landscape (v)

Monday, March 16 @ 6:30pm

A chronicle of the St. Clair system—its waters, people, and how they navigated, claimed, and reshaped this unique region.

The USS Indianapolis - and Human Resilience

Monday, March 30 @ 6:30pm

Discover the story of the USS Indianapolis—torpedoed on July 30, 1945, and sunk in just twelve minutes. Of nearly 1,200 aboard, only 316 survived, marking the worst at-sea loss in U.S. Navy history.

Detroit's Voice of Summer: Ernie Harwell

Tuesday, March 31 @ 6:30pm

For 42 seasons and over 7,000 games, Ernie Harwell was the beloved voice of Detroit Tigers baseball. Join Jeremy Dimick from the Detroit Historical Society to explore Harwell's life, career, and lasting impact on Tiger fans.

April

Behind the Scenes: The Straits of Mackinac

Tuesday, April 7 @ 6:30pm

Explore the rich history of the Straits of Mackinac—from Indigenous peoples and the fur trade to battles, logging, and fudge making.

Historic Mackinac Island Architecture

Thursday, April 16 @ 6:30pm

Learn about the historic architecture of Michigan's beloved Mackinac Island with author, photographer and architectural historian Dale A. Carlson.

May

Searching for Your Revolutionary War Patriot Workshop

Saturday, May 16 @ 1-3:30pm

DAR Genealogists will help you trace your Revolutionary War Patriot. Bring a 5-Generation Family Chart or a list of grandparents and great-grandparents.

\*registration required for each class*

Adult Painting Class

Saturday, January 10 @ 1pm

$5 materials fee

Join us for a paint party with Canvas by Shelia (local artist Shelia Vertoli). Shelia will provide guided art instructions to transform a blank canvas into a beautiful waterfront scene.

Kiss My Glass Stained Glass

Saturday, May 9 @ 1pm

$5 materials fee

Join Kiss My Glass for a fun fused glass workshop! Create a nightlight or suncatcher using pre-cut scrap glass—no cutting required. Assemble your mosaic design in class; projects will be kiln-fired and returned in 10-12 days.

Take and Make Crafting

Standing Book Vase

Monday, February 2

Make a beautiful vase from a book that can be used year-round by just changing the flowers for the season.

Hop in to Spring Wooden Wall Hanging

Monday, March 2

Bring spring into your home with this fun project. Decoupage napkins decorate a wooden egg with wooden bunny cutout attached to it.

Wood Bird Houses on Candlesticks

Monday, April 6

Create a whimsical home décor with wooden birdhouses and candle sticks. The kit will contain enough materials for two items.

Registration is required for all programs and crafts.
Fees are non-refundable

All about the Food

Registration begins
Wednesday, December 17
@ 9am

Spice Club: Novels and Memoirs

1-2pm, Virtual

Spice Club is going regional. We have selected novels and a memoir that feature recipes as a central theme. Recipes will be provided from the books, as well as additional ones that complement the book's content.

Participants can simply try the recipes, or they can also read the book to gain a deeper understanding of the recipes and their ingredients. Books will have to be ordered through the MeLcat system.

Pick up the Spice Kit on the 1st of the month, then we will meet on the 3rd Tuesday to discuss the pros and cons of the recipes, share cooking tips, and exchange ideas.

February 17: Heartburn by Nora Ephron

Recipes from the Washington D.C. area

March 17: The Farmette Cookbook by Imen McDonnell

Pick up a copy of the book before the discussion dates.

2/4: The Mountain Between Us by Charles Martin

When a blizzard forces two strangers—a surgeon and a writer—to crash-land in Utah's remote mountains, their fight for survival turns into an unexpected journey of love and resilience that will change them forever.

3/4: The Resemblance by Lauren Nossett

When a fraternity brother is killed by a driver who looks just like him, Detective Marlitt Kaplan's investigation into UGA's Greek system uncovers dark secrets and a brotherhood desperate to protect its own.

4/1: Second Life of Mirielle West by Amanda Skenadore

When a 1920s Hollywood socialite is diagnosed with leprosy and sent to the remote Carville Leper Home, she must rebuild her identity and find purpose amid isolation, stigma, and loss in this moving story of courage and reinvention.

5/6: Remarkably Bright Creatures by Shelby Van Pelt

When a grieving widow befriends a clever giant Pacific octopus at her aquarium job, their unlikely bond leads to revelations about her long-lost son and the healing power of connection.

Great Decisions

February 9, March 9, April 13, May 11

Join the Library's Great Decisions group. Discussion is about world affairs and is facilitated by The Foreign Policy Association (www.fpa.org)

Live Music @ The Library

World Music Concert with Paul Vornhagen and Aron Kaufman

Saturday, January 17
@ 2pm

Paul and Aron have performed at a variety of venues in Ann Arbor and Toledo, bringing their tantalizing rhythms from Africa, the Middle East, Cuba, and Trinidad blended with jazz melodies to appreciative audiences. With no chordal instruments to define harmonics, there is a freedom to explore the interplay of melody and rhythm. The sound of their improvised music is magical, inspiring, meditative, lyrical, joyful, and lively.

Registration for all programs
begins Wednesday, December 17
@ 9am

Cuban Music with Tumbao Bravo

Saturday, February 21
@ 2pm

Formed in August 2003 by reedman Paul VornHagen and conguero Alberto Nacif, Tumbao Bravo has released five critically acclaimed CDs of mostly original compositions that have been featured on all the major jazz public radio stations throughout the United States.

Songs and Stories of Ireland

Saturday, March 14
@ 2pm

A weather forecast from the past; a mysterious Viking invasion; and a visit to the mythical Isle of Hy-Brasil – these are just some of the stories brought to life in Irish songwriter Enda Reilly's music. With intricate guitar- playing, vocal prowess and a cross-cultural sensibility, Reilly brings the essence of Ireland to American audiences.
